

THE MAYOR'S BOOK CLUB FOR KIDS

APRIL NEWSLETTER

GREETINGS FROM YOUR MAYOR!

I am so excited to have you reading with me. Thanks for becoming a member of my book club for kids.

For February we read, The Freedom Ship of Robert Smalls. Then, for March our book was, All Are Welcome. It has been so much fun to read with you!

I hope you are also enjoying our reading together and the art activities that the Gibbes Museum of Art plans for each book. Let's give them a big thanks for joining in on the great time we are having. Reading is very important because it opens up the windows of your mind to unlimited horizons.

Happy reading!

JOHN J. TECKLENBURG
MAYOR, CITY OF CHARLESTON

The bookseller for the Mayor's Book Club for Kids:

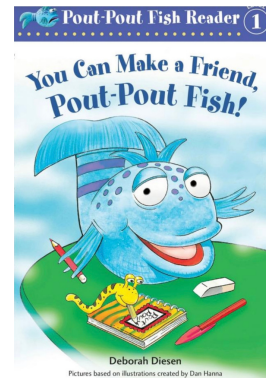

Buxton Books
160 King Street
Charleston, SC 29401
843-834-6575
Buxtonbooks.com

Your parents can check out the book of the month for you at a Charleston Country Library branch in the City of Charleston or online here

<https://www.ccpl.org/eds/detail?db=cat05846a&an=ccp.1110103&isbn=0876175485>.

The branches also have membership cards.

THE APRIL BOOK OF MONTH

Writer Deborah Diesen and illustrator Dan Hanna present a Level 1 Beginning Reader paperback about confidence featuring the star of the New York Times—bestselling series in You Can Do It, Pout-Pout Fish! Mr. Fish has a fun idea! He is going to make a painting for his friends at school, and he does not need any help. He can do this on his own!

